

I work in the entertainment industry on projects that appear in television, film and on the radio. Speaking as a working professional, I can say that the level of consolidation in the media is already hurting the entertainment industry. Please do not allow further consolidation of ownership in the media.